

Director training – a focus on INEDs

In today's fast-changing business environment, directors of listed companies are increasingly exposed to many kinds of risks, ranging from regulatory sanctions, investor actions to risks related to ESG, and particularly climate change.

To support directors, especially independent non-executive directors (INEDs), The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute (HKCGI) is delighted to have HKEX as the supporting organisation for its latest director training series, titled "Director training – a focus on INEDs" at HKEX Connect Hall.

In three training sessions, you will hear from HKEX regulators, prominent directors including INEDs, as well as market practitioners, governance professionals to understand director/INED's duties, current regulatory issues and to gain practical advice.
